CARD OF THANKS

THANK YOU
Our dream was to build a home in the country and that became a reality when Bob Randall hired Rod and me to be teachers in Carbon 2 thirty-seven years ago. Many wonderful people welcomed us with open arms and became our friends.

After Rod's knee surgery in October—and the infection that followed—he received encouragement to get well when people called, sent cards and flowers, wrote letters and visited him in the hospital and rehab. He loved hearing from all of you.

Rod fought hard to get well but died from sepsis at the end of January. Our family has been so moved by all of the expressions of concern and love in the beautiful cards that we have received.

Thank you for your support and many acts of kindness. A special thank you to Mike Martell, Deb and Scott Kinniburgh, Kristen Barkhurst, Marilyn and Sam Verplancke, Leslie Johnson, and Roberta Hintz. Your extra efforts kept the pipes from freezing, the mail coming, gave us a home away from home, open communication and made a terrible situation more bearable to the end.

We will never forget your thoughtfulness.

Love, The Laird Family
Pat, Jennifer, Tracey, Susan and Scott
