

'UN-STABLE' GAMES

Donkey Basketball provided the lead athletes a chance to get out of the stables Saturday at the PVCC Gym

A member of the Saratoga Fire Department team goes a bit "over the top" to the amusement of the crowd.

Any finely-trained athlete hates sitting out a game. This Donkey was not happy to be left "on the bench."

Martha Faust seems tentative about petting a donkey as her mother, Melissa, holds her during an opportunity to pet the animals between games.

Garrett Sperry does his bit on cleanup "duty" Saturday.

Photos by
Keith McLendon
Fred Broschart
Amanda Shepherd

Battling for possession was a fairly common occurrence during the games Saturday.

Below, a scene from Saturday's second game between Barkhurst Collision (green shirts) and The Saratoga Lions Club team.

Looking like the "Magnificent Six," teams from Laramie Plains Properties and the Saratoga Volunteer Fire Department ride down the court.

A member of the Barkhurst Collision team gets caught up in the moment (and the reins) during Saturday's second game.

Kelby Lang (SVFD team) protects the ball from Trevor Thatcher (Laramie Plains Properties team) Saturday.