The Saratoga Sun is your legal notification publication

Wyoming's newspapers are home to a rich history of self-government in the form of public notices published over the last 120 years.

Unchanging and unchangeable, the state's paper and ink record of public notices is a permanent and complete record of government activities.

To allow for easy research of that history, the Wyoming Press Association has created www.wypublicnotices.com - a web page carrying the legal notices published in most of the state's newspapers. This central repository of notices is being maintained as a public service - not as a replacement for legal notices in newspapers. Because the history of Wyoming is too important to take out of its newspapers.

A reminder of the importance of legal notices, brought to you by the Wyoming Press Association and
