20th Annual Grand Encampment Cowboy Gathering

Photos by Virginia Parker

Jason, Amy, Annie and Washtub Jerry thrilled us with their amazing talent. They make quite the quartet.

Caitlyn Taussig's rendition of the National Anthem rang out over the hills.

Steve Moulton made our hearts full and the tears fall with his tribute to Chuck Larsen.

Al "Doc" Mehl shared his poetry and musical lyrics enthralled the crowd. When this reporter asked where he got the nickname "Doc", he smiled and said it was a secret that was revealed in one of his poems. I promised not to tell.

Mark Helwick and Gary Jacobsen handed out drinks to the thirsty crowd, with a smile and a wave.

Jack Schmidt, assisted by Cheryl Munro created buttermilk biscuits and taught the crowd the fine art of biscuit making as well. His recipes are poems, Schmidt says that's how he remembers them.

Many Strings tuning up for the show.

Vickie and Kal Herring were given the GECG 2022 Pioneer Award for their long time commitment to agriculture.

20th Anniversary cakes made by cake artist, Janice White were devoured by the attendees.

Jason Swedlund President of the Outfit exceeded and entertained the crowd while handling the sound equipment and keeping his cool.

The Grand Encampment Cowboy Gathering celebrated its 20th Anniversary this year with many of the founders in attendance. Robert Worthington originally presented the idea for the gathering 20 years ago.
