NOTICE OF PUBLIC MEETING

The Town of Encampment, Wyoming, will conduct a public meeting at 5:30 p.m. local time on May 29, 2024, in the council chambers at Encampment Town Hall located at 614 McCaffrey Avenue. The purpose of the meeting is to allow citizens to review and comment on the following project.

The Town of Encampment Lagoon Improvements, Phase 2 Project will make improvements to the existing lagoon cell(s) in order to meet water quality compliance requirements currently not being met by the Town of Encampment. Specifically, periodic discharge permit limits for BOD and pH have been out of compliance due to inadequate treatment. The upgrades to the treatment process under this phase of the project will include installation of a submerged air diffusion system to improve aeration and denitrification activity as well as the installation of baffling within lagoon cell one to reduce short-circuiting and improve treatment. A new building will be installed adjacent to lagoon cell one to house the submerged air diffusion compressors and controls. The limits of construction for this project are completely within the boundary of the existing lagoon facility.

At the meeting, the Town of Encampment will present the preliminary design of the proposed project and will discuss the estimated cost of the improvements and the plan for funding the improvements. A preliminary plan of improvements, cost estimates, and the funding plan can also be reviewed at Encampment Town Hall located at 614 McCaffrey Avenue, Encampment, WY. Contact Doreen Harvey at (307) 324-3058.

Based on current cost estimates, the Town of Encampment intends to borrow $500,000 from the Wyoming Clean Water State Revolving Loan Fund administered by the Wyoming Office of State Lands and Investments with 75% Principal Forgiveness. User rate fees will not be increased as a result of this project. Loan terms will be 1.5% interest rate and the term of the loan will be 20 years. Written comments are also welcome. Filling in the...

The house Waliser and Herold grew up in once belonged to Swanson's oldest son Augustine (August), a confirmed bachelor. Waliser said the Swansons continued to invest in property in the Platte Valley and Carbon County. One investment they made was when they purchased a hotel in Fort Steele.

"When the Swansons were living in Fort Steele, Mary ran a hotel and John purchased one of them," Waliser said. "A man named Herbie, it was not his real name but that's what the folks in the town called him, had dementia to the point he had forgotten he sold the hotel to John for $1,000. Herbie was not too happy he did not own the hotel anymore."

Waliser said he did a lot of research to find answers to his family ancestry. He had to investigate to find documents, artifacts, and records which were legitimate to show evidence of where, when, what and how everything started for the Swanson family.

"One of our objectives was to not rewrite history but to come up with stuff that is as accurate as possible," Waliser said. "We have found dates we were looking for that were close, but not absolute. We needed to know as much (as possible) about the people because they were just not people but someone who is part of our community history."

Herold said what she and her brother have long regretted was they did not ask questions before older family members passed on.

"Ray and I are now the older generation in the family and we wished we had asked more questions when our parents and other family members were still with us," Harold said. "So much family history has been lost because we didn't ask questions."

Herold gave a brief history of the Swanson's children, where they were born and where they lived. The Swanson's oldest son, August, was born in Sweden before immigrating to the United States.

~ Karen Herold, descendant of John and Mary Swanson

"John and Mary had five children. August was born in Sweden and ranched on what was known as the home place," Herold said. "Ben was born in Grenville and ranched, Charles was born at Fort Steele and was a machinist and worked on the railroad in Montana before he returned to the Valley and ranched.

Lillie was born at Fort Steele, she married Ed Hutchison and they also ranched and Frank was born at Fort Steele, he had a dairy and also ranched."

Herold lives in the house once owned by August Swanson. She said her children are the fifth generation to live in that historic house.

"The house August lived in was built in the 1890s and it is a log house that sits on a foundation of sandstone rock," Herold said. "The interior walls are log and are finished with lathe and plaster. The interior woodwork, doors (and) windows are all recycled from officer quarters that Mary Swanson bought at Fort Steele after the fort was decommissioned. My children are the fifth generation that has lived in this house."

Waliser and Harold still live in the Platte Valley and are still working to solve the mystery of the Swanson Family history. They are working to find any document that will help them find the answers they are looking for.
